Presbyterianism—try to say that three times fast! The last two Sundays in February, the 16th and the 23rd, Pastor Jess will be leading a Presbyterianism 101 New Members class. This is for people who have either recently joined or are thinking about joining, as well as those of you who might want a 2 week refresher course on what it means to be a Presbyterian. Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God—what is good and acceptable and perfect. (Roman 12:2)

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The interim time is a time of renewing our minds. At the Session meeting earlier in December, I asked the ruling elders if the congregation had ever had an official interim pastor (also known as an "intentional interim pastor"—a pastor who is purposefully contracted for a relatively short period of time, usually between six months up to three years). Turns out, you haven't, so I thought I'd share in this a little bit about what interim ministry is.

In addition to having consistent worship, preaching, congregational care, and administrative leadership, having an interim minister is an opportunity for:

- Healthy transition from one pastor to the next
- Grievino
- · Deepening one's trust with God and one another
- Leadership renewal
- Reflection
- Seeing God's call for you as a congregation in a new light
- Transformation

Thank you for your warm welcome and support. I look forward to serving together with you in the coming months and getting to know you.

Speaking of getting to know you, the best way for me to pray for you and learn your names is by having an updated picture of your family that will fit on a 4 x 6 card. Please email me an updated picture or drop one by the office as soon as you are able. Thanks!

Grace and Peace,

Jess

JANUARY 2014 YOUTH MINISTRY UPDATE

Hello fellow Christ-Lovers!

As this year comes to a close we are able to reflect on what the past year has brought for our youth. I love to think about all the awesome things that I was able to share with them. I love that I am able to learn and grow along with these youth members. We have had our fair share of ups and downs with switching pastors and changes with the youth group meetings. We have accepted so many new members and have made plenty of new friends. The group and I have made connections with many churches both in our area and in other states. Our high school members have experienced helping others who need our skills and handy work. Also over the summer, the kids fourth grade and up go to a week- long retreat and spend time seeing old friends. They take a time from their busy summer to climb the mountain to get spiritually closer to Jesus Christ. They have all grown in their faith. I am hoping that all of this becomes tradition within our group.

While I was reflecting for this article I was watching a couple of Christmas movies from when I was younger and how in our family its tradition to watch "Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer" and "Santa Claus is Coming to Town". We have been sitting down after Christmas Eve service for as long as I can remember and enjoying these classics together. I started to think about our youth group and how even during the ups and downs and changes of our church, it's important to keep constants and traditions.

So, as many of you may have seen on Facebook, the kids and I kept a very special Christmas tradition. We sat and watched "Elf" and ate candy. I wanted to spruce it up a little bit and add a couple of games and spice up the candy. If any of you have ever seen the movie "Elf", of if you haven't you definitely should, there are specific things that Buddy the Elf eats during the movie. We had M&Ms, cookies, Pixie Stix, and gum. You would have to see the movie to understand. We also played games that were Christmas inspired - such as our wrapping contest! This did not include any boxes or gifts, but children instead. We also celebrated by having an indoor snowball fight. Before anyone worries about the hardwood floor, don't worry, it was just paper. It's incredible how competitive some crinkled up paper can make a dozen kids.

But anyway, it's something that we do every year and I plan on continuing to have a special youth group around Christmas time. I love Christmas and the spirit it brings to so many people. I hope you all had a Merry Christmas with your families and I can't wait to get started on plans for the new year!

God Bless! Cassy VanFossen, Youth Director

DINNER Hosts

Because of recent events, we will be doing the dinner hosting a little different. I have had some trouble coming up with people to sign up and lack of participation for Sundays Youth Group. I will be putting together a schedule for parents. If there is any weekend that I have signed you up for that you can't do, you can always ask another family to switch with you. Thank you so much for your understanding.

STEWARDSHIP UPDATE

Rick Van Fossen - Dec 25, 2013

As I write this it is late in the evening on Christmas day (yes, I procrastinated and the newsletter deadline is tomorrow:), and I can't help but think about how truly blessed we all are. The least of these blessings are the gifts we exchange each Christmas. Today we celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ who died for us so that our sins can be forgiven. What greater gift could we possibly receive? As a child I remember hearing people quote Acts 20:35 around this time of year; it is more blessed to give than receive. On behalf of the Session I would like to thank all of you for your gifts to the church this past year, both monetary and time/talents. Without them Lodi First Presbyterian Church simply wouldn't exist. God Bless
